What does Stewardship mean to you?

By Christine Kragel, Community Relations and Foundation Director

Eventide Lutheran Home has a strong tradition of good stewardship. Since accepting our first resident 56 years ago, we have played a vital role in taking care of our area seniors as they age. Good stewardship at Eventide blends the charitable support of generous donors with our strong financial management. The results are well trained and compassionate staff members serving our seniors for years to come.

I ask you, what does good stewardship mean to you, and are you incorporating this into your lives?

For me personally, I have learned that farm life goes hand in hand with stewardship. Although I grew up around farming, I had so little knowledge on the details. Since moving back to the area, I have made the attempt to absorb bits and pieces of information. In these moments my husband, Adam, has been mostly sweet and patient with my questions – occasionally I'll get a laugh and an eye roll. I get to see firsthand the preparation of equipment, the hours put in to planting season, the tending of the crop throughout the summer, and finally harvesting in the fall. Throughout this process I have learned those invaluable lessons of stewardship – what it is like to carefully manage resources to produce a bountiful harvest.

I have taken these lessons and applied them to my latest venture – gardening. So far, I have had some successes, and some failures. Much as farmers care for their crop, I find myself caring for my garden, along with my ever so curious sons, Lucas and Ben. We are all becoming masters in digging in the dirt, pulling weeds and of course watering our plants.

As our children walk up the hill to examine the garden's progress, or out in the field to check the crops, it is amazing to see their hope and belief as they look to see if their plants grew overnight, or produced their first fruit. Witnessing the work of farming, has taught me the value of hard work, and to have faith and patience– a lot of it! As I practice those things in the coming months, I look forward to the days we can gather our first batch of tomatoes that we can share with our family and friends.

As we lay the foundation for our family, these are the lessons I hope to pass along to my children. Our legacy will be that of hard work, faith and family. To get you thinking about your possible legacy, I leave you with the following excerpt by Doug Lockin. Doug serves the friends of Eventide with professional gift planning advice and consultation.

Leave a Legacy

by Doug Lockin, Gift Planning Consultant

As you read 'leave a legacy' what comes to mind?

Perhaps you consider the impact you have through routine daily interactions. For example by being kind, you hope to inspire others toward kindness. I will argue this type of legacy is the most powerful of all.

Maybe you hear 'leave a legacy' and think Rockefeller, Carnegie, Bill Gates or someone else well-known for giving away millions or even billions of dollars. Your conclusion might be that leaving a legacy is only for the wealthy.

Without consulting Miriam Webster, Google, or another source, here is one simple definition: We 'leave a legacy' when we take action to ensure something we value continues beyond our lifetime.

My encouragement today is that you consider making Eventide Lutheran Home's service to seniors part of your legacy. Virtually everyone might support Eventide with one of the following simple legacy plans:

- Endowing your Annual Gift – If you currently give Eventide $100 per year, consider any combination of lifetime or estate gift(s) that provides Eventide with $2,000. Eventide will invest your $2,000 gift and receive approximately $100 per year indefinitely to care for seniors in your name.

- Increase your Income Today and Provide for Eventide Indefinitely – A slightly different route to the same legacy gift goes like this: you make a (for example) $5,000 gift to Eventide now. Eventide will pay you between $250 and $450 per year (depending upon your age now), likely increasing your annual income. After your lifetime, Eventide will invest what remains of your $5,000 gift, and receive (for example) $150 per year indefinitely to care for seniors in your name.

- The 'If-Then' Plan – It is very easy to create a legacy plan that says something like this: "IF my estate is greater than (a $ amount you choose) at the time of my death, THEN I leave Eventide (a specific $ amount or %); IF NOT, THEN everything goes to my heirs."

Each of these legacy plans begins with a simple, no obligation conversation with me or one of your professional advisors. It would be my pleasure to hear your thoughts about the legacy you would like to leave. You can reach me at 515.210.6603 or dlgiftplan@gmail.com. Or, contact Christine Kragel at Eventide and she will help connect us.

My encouragement today is that you consider making Eventide Lutheran Home part of your legacy. I offer a no obligation conversation to welcome your thoughts about a legacy you wish to leave.

Appreciation Picnic

Family, friends and employees gathered for great food and great company at the Appreciation Picnic. We so deeply appreciate our employees, and the residents and families that choose Eventide for care. Each of you bring something unique and special to this big family we call Eventide. We would like to thank Martin Bros and Farner Bocken for their contributions to the picnic.

The Power of Words

Submitted by Kara Webb Monson, RN, Silveridge Assisted Living Manager

Of the many things God has blessed us with, one of the most powerful is the human tongue. We can use this tool for remarkable things. We can lift others up when they are feeling down, provide comfort in a time of sorrow, express love to those we care about, educate others and spread powerful messages, etc. The possibilities are endless. There is so much good that can come from our words.

Yet at the same time, our words can also carry a great burden and have an incomprehensible impact if they are not used in the way Jesus taught us. Many of us have experienced the heaviness of words at some point in our lives. Whether it be a schoolmate, a family member, or even a complete stranger, if someone has said something to you or about you or a loved one that caused you pain, it is difficult to forget. In some cases, it can even have a significant impact on your life. Negative words can cause self-esteem issues, instill fear, and unfortunately can resonate and spread like wildfire.

In Psalm 39:1 it says, "I will guard my ways, Lest I sin with my tongue; I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle, While the wicked are before me." Jesus' teachings remind us that we are to love our neighbor as ourselves. Even more importantly He said to LOVE our enemies and pray for them. So why are we so liberal with our words? Why do we use our tongue in hurtful ways? Why are we so judgmental of what is foreign to us?

I, personally, think we tend to fear what we do not understand. If our minds are in a state of fear or misunderstanding, it is difficult to think clearly. We often act on emotion rather than rationale. While we may not understand or agree with those around us, there are few simple questions we can ask ourselves before using our power of tongue:

1. Is it true?
2. Is it helpful?
3. Is it inspiring?
4. Is it necessary?
5. Is it kind?

If the answer to any of those questions is 'no', then Jesus would likely not want us to say it... whether it is to someone or about someone.

I challenge us during these warm summer months to focus on the power of our words and work to use them positively. Be mindful of the impact they can have on others. Let us ask ourselves these 5 questions on a routine basis so they become part of our conversational routines and it just may result in the power of our words being incredibly positive!

Hello Everyone!

Submitted by Robin Schiltz,
Eventide Activity Director

Summer is finally here, and we hope you are enjoying it! We had a super time with our Spring Fling celebrations and Boys Night Out! Thank you to all who took time out of day for those events, and to spend time with the residents of Eventide!

For those of you who keep up with us on Facebook, we have been incorporating activities involving both, our co-workers and residents. In May, we had the "Run for the Roses", and in June, we played Hungry, Hungry Hippos together. Stay tuned for more to come!

We are currently working on a service project to send goodies to our actively deployed service men & women! This, too, is a team effort! Our co-workers are donating the goodies, and our residents will help pack the boxes to send!

We want to send out big a THANK YOU, as always, to those who donate to our causes, those who help with activities, and those who spend time with loved ones here at Eventide! Your thoughtfulness, and generosity continue to assist us in providing the quality of life that our residents deserve!

Check out our upcoming events below, and always be sure to check out our website for calendars, updates, and campus news!

Annual Meeting Reminder

The Board of Directors of Eventide Lutheran Home will hold its Annual Meeting on August 19, 2019 at Silveridge Assisted Living.

Eventide Foundation Funds a New Suite for the Skilled Nursing Facility

The Eventide Lutheran Home is now able to provide a suite to residents for either short-term rehabilitation or hospice care. This addition has been made possible through the financial support of the Eventide Foundation, and therefore has been named the Foundation Suite.

“Creating this suite is an example of how Eventide is focused on meeting the special needs of not only our residents, but also their families,” said CEO Mindi Baker. “We are thankful for the Eventide Foundation’s support and consideration in our efforts to exceed resident expectations.”

For short term residents receiving skilled level of care, with anticipation to return back to their own home, the Foundation Suite will help with the adjustment and recovery period of a resident after their illness or surgery.

Additionally, this environment will serve and support family involvement during times of critical health needs, such as end of life. The suite has been designed to help provide privacy and dignity during a difficult and emotional time of transition. For those experiencing their final days, the Foundation Suite will provide enhanced comfort in a home-like setting that will allow residents and families to experience the remaining moments together.

None of this could be possible without the support of the Eventide Foundation. Funds collected by the Eventide Foundation are used to supplement the increasing cost of personal care and to provide amenities to residents that would not otherwise be available. Gifts given to the Eventide Foundation make a great difference in the comfort and quality of care delivered to the residents.

Hungry Hungry Hippo

Back by popular demand, a competitive game of Hungry, Hungry Hippos had both the employees and residents working together to prove who was the hungriest of them all!

What to know about Medicare when you Travel Abroad

Written by Medicare.gov

Medicare usually doesn’t cover health care while you’re traveling outside the U.S. There are some exceptions, including some cases where Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance) may pay for services that you get on board a ship within the territorial waters adjoining the land areas of the U.S.

Medicare may pay for inpatient hospital, doctor, ambulance services, or dialysis you get in a foreign country in these rare cases:

- You’re in the U.S. when a medical emergency occurs, and the foreign hospital is closer than the nearest U.S. hospital that can treat your medical condition.
- You’re traveling through Canada without unreasonable delay by the most direct route between Alaska and another state when a medical emergency occurs, and the Canadian hospital is closer than the nearest U.S. hospital that can treat the emergency.
- You live in the U.S. and the foreign hospital is closer to your home than the nearest U.S. hospital that can treat your medical condition, regardless of whether an emergency exists.

In some cases, Medicare may cover medically necessary health care services you get on board a ship within the territorial waters adjoining the land areas of the U.S. Medicare won’t pay for health care services you get when a ship is more than 6 hours away from a U.S. port. Medicare drug plans don’t cover prescription drugs you buy outside the U.S.

The 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa are considered part of the U.S.

Because Medicare has limited travel medical coverage outside the U.S., you may choose to buy a travel insurance policy to get more coverage. An insurance agent or travel agent can give you more information about the cost of travel medical insurance. Travel insurance doesn’t necessarily include health insurance, so it’s important to read the conditions or restrictions carefully.

DONATIONS

EVENTIDE FOUNDATION

The Eventide Foundation is a non-profit, tax exempt charitable corporation formed to collect gifts of money and assets to help off-set the expenses of caring for the elderly. Funds collected by the Foundation are used to supplement the increasing costs of personal care and to provide amenities to residents that would not otherwise be available. As you plan your estate and gift endowments, we ask that you consider a gift to the Eventide Foundation. A contribution to the Foundation allows us to provide a fuller quality of life to our residents. The Foundation needs your help to continue the work of Eventide and to ensure that each of the residents can live out their life without loss of dignity or respect. We sincerely appreciated all the gifts that have been designated to the Eventide Foundation! The following list reflects gifts received during the period of April 6, 2019 through June 20, 2019. In publishing a list of so many names, it is possible that we may have misspelled, omitted or otherwise listed your name incorrectly.
