From the Desk of the CEO Submitted by Mindi Baker

The senior living industry has certainly been a familiar headliner in the media and topic of conversations with many government officials throughout our country over the last few years. And apparently it is not about to stop. Prior to the pandemic, funding for our sector was already at levels well below costs, more so than any other healthcare provider type. Frankly, we are an industry too many want to forget about when it comes to funding or providing positive oversight. Going back to early 2020, the media was all about the pandemic with a vast number of changes hitting our industry. During this time, there was a lot of blame and frustration within our industry. This industry became a focus but for mainly for the wrong reasons. Two years later, most of the pandemic operational changes still exist and continue to add to the workload of team members in long term care. Any extra funding has been halted as the eyes of many feel and act as the pandemic is over. The Biden Administration's Nursing Home Reform Plan is slated to look at additional regulatory measures while CMS is looking to reduce reimbursement; these two things measure up to improving quality of services. We are eyeing a $320 million proposed decrease in Medicare funding at a time when historic labor crisis and federal policies and will likely make a mark on this industry for years to come. We will continue to witness nursing facilities close across our nation. I mention this only has a reality check on how this will affect our communities at a local and national level. In addition, our industry needs voices of positive support. I was able to make a trip to Washington DC in March to speak with Federal leaders about some of the biggest issues we must come overcome together. Together is key in offering workable solutions to improve quality of care and services in our industry. If anything, it was one more voice pleading the needs of our industry.

As the Eventide Leadership embarked on one of our most challenging endeavors with the opening of Gracewell during the pandemic, our strategic plan is to be in a position to serve this community for generations to come. However, this will not come without major challenges especially if CMS and government officials decide to not fund or support this industry the way it truly needs to be. With all the challenges we face, we continue to try and focus on the positives we have on the Eventide Campus. We have a beautiful new nursing facility and have already seen improvement with residents' activities of daily living. Many residents are eating more, exercising more, and socializing more. Our facility is one of the few 5 STAR ratings as set by CMS. Silveridge Assisted Living continues to have over a decade of perfect state surveys, high tenant satisfaction ratings, and outstanding support staff. Heritage Heights and Realife have seen success with steady occupancy levels and high tenant satisfaction surveys. The Eventide Foundation has seen an increase in the number of donors as awareness about this purpose continues to grow. We have longevity among our team who continue to show dedication toward our mission of serving those of age. The number of amazing volunteers on our campus continues to grow which leaves a much-needed positive impact. For all this and the challenges that lay ahead, we truly are blessed.

It is unsure if there were more eggs or more smiles during the Silveridge Assisted Living Easter Egg Hunt for tenants, employees and their families. A surprise visit from the Easter Bunny was the cherry on top for the families that joined in on the fun!

The Gracewell Grand Opening was grand indeed! Donors, employees, families and community members poured in to celebrate this monumental achievement. All were able to enjoy tours of the state of the art facility, as well participate in the ribbon cutting, dedication ceremony and toast!

Clearing the Assisted Living Air

Submitted by Kara Webb, RN, Director of Assisted Living

Recently I was visiting with an individual in the community and we were discussing assisted living. This individual mentioned, "I don't think Mom would want to live in assisted living because she does not like people telling her what to do." I could not help but giggle to myself, simply because I often hear these kinds of misconceptions. So, I decided to choose a few of the most common pieces of misinformation out there and take this opportunity to 'clear the air' on assisted living.

"They tell tenants what to do."

In the 11 years I have been at Silveridge, the one thing I am most passionate about is advocating for tenant rights. Chapter 67 in the Iowa Administrative Code describes some of the key rights tenants have in assisted living:

1. To be treated with consideration, respect, and full recognition of personal dignity and autonomy
2. To receive care, treatment and services which are adequate and appropriate
3. To receive respect and privacy in the tenant's medical care program. Personal and medical records shall be confidential, and the written consent of the tenant shall be obtained for the records release to any individual, including family members, except as needed in case of the tenant's transfer to a health care facility or as required by law or third-part payment contract
4. To be free from mental and physical abuse
5. To receive from the manager and staff of the program a reasonable response to all requests.
6. To associate and communicate privately and without restriction with persons and groups of tenant's choice, including the tenant advocate, on the tenant's initiative or on the initiative of the person or groups at any reasonable hour.
7. To manage the tenant's own financial affairs unless a tenant's legal representative has been appointed for the purpose of managing the tenant's financial affairs.
8. To present grievances and recommended changes in the program policies and services, personally or through other persons or in combination with others, to the program's staff or person in charge without fear of reprisal, restraint, interference, coercion, or discrimination.

9. To be free from restraints

It is not always easy to interpret formal regulations or verbiage, so let me summarize: You have the right to govern your day, your choices, your services, your life just as you did before assisted living. If you want to sleep in until 10:00am, you can. If you want to maintain your independence with all of the tasks in your day, you can. If you want to meet your friends for Friday morning coffee, you can. If you want to go the Bahamas on a winter cruise, you can (as long you bring me too). Choosing to move to assisted living may sound like you would be giving up your independence or freedoms, but it is actually designed to enhance and support that very thing.

"I won't have any privacy."

With two different spacious apartment floorplans to choose from, tenants are able to transform their new home into the perfect space. This space is their own private haven, a place for them to continue to do things they enjoy such as making their morning pot of coffee, sewing, visiting with family and friends, watching the daily dose of The Price is Right, or whatever you used to do in your house. The only difference is, should the tenant get lonely or need assistance there is someone in the building 24 hours a day that is just a pendant push away.

"Assisted living doesn't really have many staff."

While assisted living is not staffed like a skilled nursing facility such as Gracewell (we are not intended to be) we always maintain adequate staff to ensure we meet tenant needs. One thing I found interesting in assisted living is there really only has to be one registered nurse in the program by regulation. ONE... in the entire program! The remaining staff can be medication managers or uncertified/unlicensed universal workers.

Silveridge proudly holds a higher standard to this rule. We currently have 4 registered nurses and 3 licensed practical nurses on our team, in addition to our medication managers and tenant companions. We strive to have a nurse providing care on the floor for the 6:00am-2:00pm and the 2:00pm-10:00pm shifts and utilize a medication manager for the overnight shift (in addition to an RN who is on call 24/7). So, in short, Silveridge is 'nurse heavy'. This is certainly something we take pride in and feel is something that gives tenants and families peace of mind.

"I don't think Mom or Dad NEED assisted living yet."

If I have learned anything in my years in assisted living, it is that tenants more often than not wait too long to come. Assisted living is designed to support independence while providing amenities that enhance quality of life. ANYONE can benefit from that. We have tenants who move to Silveridge simply because they do not want to have to cook, buy groceries or do dishes anymore. Some move in just so they do not have to be alone. They virtually receive no health care services and simply enjoy the activities, meals, weekly housekeeping and seeing friends. It is never too soon to enjoy the amenities and benefits assisted living offers.

On the other hand, because assisted living regulations set certain criteria for admission and retention, some who want to come to us 'when they are ready' are already close to or are exceeding level of care and no longer a candidate. This is a heartbreaking situation for me and for the tenant and their family who hoped to enjoy assisted living, and unfortunately, I see it often. My only advice to you on this would be: if you have any interest in assisted living whatsoever; make the call, take the tour, ask the questions, talk to other established tenants, try a meal in our dining room, and get a feel for the atmosphere. Try it out. I promise (and our current tenants would agree) you will not regret it!

Although there are other misconceptions associated with assisted living, I am likely taking up enough space in the Events for now, so I encourage you to reach out to me and ask anytime you may have a question. I do hope I have 'cleared the air' on some common assisted living misconceptions! After my 11 years here, I can wholeheartedly say I LOVE assisted living and what it offers for seniors.

$3,900 Raised for the Gracewell Nursing Facility

The employees of the Eventide campus recently wrapped up a successful fundraiser for the Gracewell Nursing Facility.

With the support of the community, over $3,900 was raised at the Staley's Chicken Dinner. The community came out in droves, and the Eventide team ended up serving approximately 700 people! We are grateful for the continued goal of creating a home-like environment for our nursing home residents. Thank you to all the volunteers, and community who supported this fundraiser!

USDA Rural Development leaders, Theresa Greenfield, Chris Mercer, Tyler Koopman and Cecilia Lynch toured the Gracewell Nursing Facility shortly after opening. With financing through the USDA Community Facilities Direct Loan, affordable funding to develop essential community facilities in rural areas is provided. With favorable interest rates and the 40 year repayment structure, these terms made building the replacement facility possible.

Happy Spring!

Submitted by Robin Schiltz,
Eventide Activity Director

Well, we all survived the move to Gracewell, and the Activity Team is up and running! We spent the first week assisting the residents in situating their rooms, and getting them acquainted to Main Street and other the households. We are becoming well-adjusted to ways of setting up groups, both in our large Activity Center, and also smaller groups in the households.

You will soon see our residents out cruising the town on bus rides. When and if the weather ever cooperates, we are all ready to get outdoors and enjoy the fresh air! We have had entertainment and religious services in our new Activity Center, along with bingo, bowling, and exercises!

Planting flowers, baking, and community involvement are just a few of the things we have planned for the summer months! Men's group and Happy Hour have also been a big hit. We adore our residents, and we strive to engage them in person-centered care.

April was National Volunteer Month, and although we were unable to celebrate them with our annual (pre-Covid) Volunteer Tea Party, we want them all to know just how much they are appreciated! We have been so blessed with the commitment, willingness, dedication, and loyalty of our volunteers! Thank you all from the bottom of our hearts!

A special shoutout for donations to the Activity Department. Thank you to the family of Ray Williams for the donation to our sound system, and also, thank you to Simone Dubois, for the donation of two digital pianos, in honor of Rose and Roger Broderson!

Do not forget to tune in to our Eventide website, eventidehome.com, to view our monthly activity calendars, and check out our Facebook page, Eventide A Senior Living Community, for fun photos from the Eventide Campus!

Always remember... Don't worry, be happy!

Grace Well With Us

If you haven't heard the news yet - the move to Gracewell is complete! Residents made the move on April 5th and 6th and were happy to get settled in! Thank you to the many volunteers we had on hand to make those few days as smooth as possible. We couldn't have done it without the Crawford County Memorial Hospital volunteers and vehicles, as well as the many family members and their fleet of trucks and trailers. We certainly all appreciated the Lutheran Women's Missionary League for the homemade treats for staff and residents. Life at Gracewell is off to a great start!

Phone System Update

If you have called us recently, you are already aware that we have a new phone system! We continue to adjust the system to best meet the needs for our callers. Our phone numbers have not changed, but we no longer have rollover numbers you may have seen in the past. To avoid any confusion, please add us to your contact list as needed.

Welcome To Gracewell Family & Friends!

Submitted by Amy Schultz, Gracewell Administrator

Visitors are welcomed! Here are a few things to keep in mind as you visit residents or employees at Gracewell.

The nursing facility address will remain the same as prior, 114 South 20th Street in Denison. The Business Offices, formerly located at the Heritage Heights apartments, have moved and can now be found within Gracewell. Our Main Entrance is now facing East and you can find the visitor parking from 20th Street. When you enter the vestibule, you will now see a tablet that will complete the COVID-19 health screen before you visit. This screening machine is called an Accu-Shield. Several nursing facilities have changed from paper screens to the machine as it is quicker and more accurate for health screens. Here are some quick directions for using the Accu-Shield.

To start, tap the screen

Select Sign In

Select Family or Guest

Enter your cell phone number. Enter your first and last name.

You will be shown a facility policy for visiting residents, select 'I Accept' after reading if you are in agreement.

Answer the health screening questions. Confirm your answers are correct.

To take your temperature, line your eyes up on the screen in the two circles and hold your head still. Your temperature will automatically be taken. It is best to not wear both glasses and face mask during the temperature reading.

The machine will ask if you are vaccinated the first time and then not again when you enter your phone number.

The machine will ask which resident at Gracewell you will be visiting; you will enter their last name, and their name will pull up from drop down box. You can then select the resident from a drop-down box. The Accu-Shield will remember who you are selecting a visit with, and will select this name for you next time.

The machine will print you a badge to prove you passed the health screening. Please wear this badge when in the facility.

After you have completed your screening, you will need to ring the doorbell. This is the silver button on the wall with an intercom. Our staff will be able to communicate with you, and will have to buzz you into the building if you have passed your screening.

When exiting, you do not have to "Sign Out" at this time.

If at any point you are struggling with the screen in process, please push the doorbell to talk to staff or call Gracewell at 263-3114.

A Lasting Tribute

Submitted by Christine Kragel, Community Relations and Foundation Director

Memorial gifts are a meaningful way to remember a loved one's legacy or express your appreciation for someone special. Your gift will make a difference in the lives of others on behalf of a loved one today, tomorrow and far into the future all while supporting the mission of the Eventide Senior Living Community. Losing a loved one is difficult, but many families find comfort in honoring those they have lost by requesting memorial contributions be made to the Eventide Foundation. You can invite others to give by asking the person arranging the funeral or memorial service to insert the following phrase in the obituary notice: In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial gifts be made to the Eventide Foundation at 114 South 20th Street, Denison, IA 51442. Donation envelopes are also available upon request at Gracewell and at our local funeral homes. Thank you for considering the Eventide Foundation in your memorial giving.

DONATIONS

EVENTIDE FOUNDATION

The Eventide Foundation is a non-profit, tax-exempt charitable corporation formed to collect gifts of money and assets to help off-set the expenses of caring for the elderly. Funds collected by the Foundation are used to supplement the increasing costs of personal care and to provide amenities to residents that would not otherwise be available. As you plan your estate and gift endowments, we ask that you consider a gift to the Eventide Foundation. A contribution to the Foundation allows us to provide a fuller quality of life to our residents. The Foundation needs your help to continue the work of the Eventide Campus and to ensure that each of the residents can live out their life without loss of dignity or respect. We sincerely appreciated all the gifts that have been designated to the Eventide Foundation! The following list reflects gifts received during the period of January 1, 2022 through April 30, 2022. In publishing a list of so many names, it is possible that we may have misspelled, omitted or otherwise listed your name incorrectly. If so, please notify the Foundation office at (712) 263-3114, ext. 240 so that we can make the necessary corrections. Thank you.

Baker Awarded Businesswoman of the Year

Eventide Campus CEO, Mindi Baker, was awarded Business Woman of the Year by the Chamber and Development Council of Crawford County and the Women in Business Impact Organization. The award celebrates the achievements of an exceptional woman in Crawford County who has had a significant impact in business and in the community over the past several years, who also participates in volunteer activities and has unselfishly contributes her time to a cause larger than herself.

Baker was nominated by Tonya Eller, member of the Eventide Board of Directors, and was acknowledged for her determination and leadership throughout the entire nursing facility transformation. "She worked extremely hard to facilitate growth in her organization by leading a cutting-edge development in the industry and hiring valuable team members to make the process flow successfully," said Eller. She added, "Not only did she successfully lead a team through an extensive transition but she did so during one of the most difficult times we have experienced in our lives." Also pictured are, Rachel Desy, Chamber Office Manager, and Dr. Jessica Martens, Partner at Broadway Dental and Emerging Women in Business Award Recipient. Congratulations ladies!
